CREATIVE FABRIC WORKSHOP

SPRING FLORAL APPLIQUÉ with ALEXANDRA HUCKS

Join us at the Top Floor for a day filled with fabric and flowers.

Saturday 16th March 2024
10am-4pm
Top Floor, Woodchester Mill, GL5 5NN

£95 per person

We're delighted that tutor Alexandra Hucks is returning with her inspiring appliqué floral masterclass. This workshop is an ideal gift idea for Mother's Day or why not come along with some friends or just treat yourself?

You will learn all the techniques needed to create your own appliqué panel using an array of Lewis & Wood floral fabric remnants. Stitching can be done by hand or on a sewing machine. You may also wish to try out free motion embroidery.

Smaller pieces can be completed on the day, you are very welcome to embark on a larger piece to continue at home too. Your finished piece could be used as a cushion panel or displayed as artwork – we will offer advice about this on the day and we are also planning to host a follow up session for those interested in making cushions.

We hope that you will come along and enjoy some creative time in our wonderful Top Floor space. A delicious lunch and afternoon tea and cake are included.
